

Vibrating reminder watches...

Popular with kids who need to be reminded often but don't have a parent nearby to do the reminding

- ✓ Great for frequent reminders
- ✓ Decreases the chance of an embarrassing accident
- ✓ Discreet and easy-to-use

Great for grown-up uses too!

Some children can become so engaged in an enjoyable activity, they simply don't stop to use the bathroom. So when your health care provider prescribes a timed-voiding (urinating) regimen for your child, the Bedwetting Store has the solutions you need.

Bedwetting  Store™

Our most popular timed voiding watches can help your child with frequent reminders to use the restroom on a regular schedule, and lessen the chance of embarrassing accidents.

Look for these features as you select the watch that is best for you and your child. Refer to the comparison chart for easy selecting.

- Auto-Restart Countdown – All the watches shown here include auto-restart countdown. Auto-Restart Countdown “interval” alarms can be turned off at night and restarted in the morning without having to reset the interval.
- Independently Set Alarms – Some watches also allow for multiple independent settings per day in addition to “interval” timing. Independent settings are especially convenient for school-day schedules. These watches are easy to use – set the alarms once and every day they vibrate at those specific times.
- Sound or Vibration – Vibration is an excellent solution for discreet reminders or in noisy settings.

All vibrating watches are approximately the same size due to the vibrating mechanism. Those shown here have the same-size watch face, approximately 1.5" in diameter, and fit a wrist 7 inches in circumference or larger. For smaller wrists, you can punch additional holes in the band or exchange the band for a child-size band purchased at a retail store (except for the Malem 12 Vibro-Watch's band featuring additional holes to fit down to 5 1/2 inches.). For children who resist wearing a wristwatch, our Invisible Clock is very small and clips on the waistband like a pager.

Choose from our popular vibrating reminder watches to implement your health care provider's timed voiding recommendation.
